

General Description and Office of Logistics Location -
Items of Potential Interest for An Intelligence Museum

1. Two inscribed trowels used by President Eisenhower and DCI Dulles at cornerstone laying ceremony at Langley, Virginia, 3 November 1959.

Location: Director of Logistics Office (in D/L safe).

2. One framed photograph of cornerstone ceremony - received from Col. White.

Location: Director of Logistics Office (in D/L conference room, closet)

3. One model of CIA Headquarters Building in transparent protective case.

Location: Logistics Services Division.

4. Series of photographs taken during various stages of construction - CIA Headquarters Building.

Location: Logistics Services Division.

5. Series of photographs - construction of Printing Services Building at Headquarters.

Location: Printing Services Division.

25X1A6A

6. Two brass enameled plaques which identified   Station (cover designation) prior to phase out of Station.

Location: Plans and Programs Staff (in visual aids safe).

7. Photographs of stone jar presented to DCI Helms by Gen. Vang Pao. Jar subsequently donated to Smithsonian by Helms.

Location: Plans and Programs Staff (in this file folder).

8. Operational and paramilitary support items as follows:

- a. Special design parachutes and other aerial cargo delivery devices.
- b. Special weapons.
- c. Document destroyer.
- d. Examples of safe filing equipment, from early bar lock to present types.

Location: Supply Division.